Do I have to import my new families every month?

No, Importing is only a "starting" service for new clients to get your current data into Jackrabbit quickly. Once you are using Jackrabbit, additional new families will be added directly - either by you/your staff using Families>Quick Registration or by your customers when they use online Web Registration. You should not need to do any further importing.